“Got me used to being with other people”

“Without this group, we wouldn't have experienced the power and joy of making pictures or weaving. It's great that it's free (to us) which encourages people to come and makes them feel welcome.”

“I was very low when I joined the group. I felt so nervous that I nearly said I wasn't coming back, but Marion and the group were so welcoming and understanding that slowly it build up my confidence with people.”

“The group improved my confidence with art. It's something wholesome to look forward to.”

“Ultimately has helped me be less isolated and even better it's around arts... which I love.”
